Box Patent Application
Assistant Commissioner for Patents
Washington, DC 20231

Attention: Mr. Mark Poluta

Dear Sir:

This letter is to request a filing date of 11/27/01 on my patent application, appn.# 10/002763 entitled "Picking Rake".

Last Nov. 27, 2001, I went to the post office with the intention of mailing my application via Express Mail so that I could get an instant filing date of 11/27/01. However, I was informed that Express Mail service to the patent offices was temporarily suspended due to the recent anthrax scare. They suggested that I just send it by priority mail which I reluctantly did, having no other choice. I also placed on one of the transmittal forms a couple of yellow post-it notes that the post office provided. I indicated on the post-it notes that since there was no Express Mail service to your address that day, I was advised to send the application by priority mail instead and that I ^{also} requested an instant filing date of 11/27/01.

The 11/27/01 filing date is crucial for me because I am claiming the benefit of a provisional patent application ser.# 60/253.552 filed 11/28/00.

A copy of the dated priority mail receipt is printed on this letter.

Thank you for your consideration.

Re: Patent Application No. 10/002,763

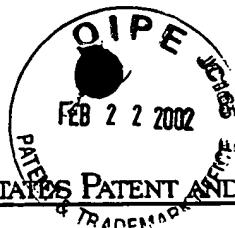

Dear Sir/Ma'am:

I am writing to request for a consideration of a different filing date of 11/27/01 for the above patent application in place of the 12/05/01 shown on the attached copy of my filing receipt. The reasons are explained in a letter that I faxed last Dec. 19 to Mr. Mark Poluta. A copy of that letter is attached for your reference. Mr. Poluta is currently helping to push my case through.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Ann Caneca
